

THE 54TH KENTUCK FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

OCTOBER 11-12, 2025

OUR MISSION: Kentuck Art Center's mission is to perpetuate the arts, engage the community, and empower the artist. Kentuck's largest event, The Kentucky Festival of the Arts, has a 54-year history as a hub of culture and creativity, nationally recognized for its quality, diversity, and celebration of artistic styles ranging from folk to contemporary arts and traditional crafts.

270+
artists from across the country

20+
music and spoken
word performances

10+
artmaking activities
for children

15+
Artists demonstrating

AUDIENCE

In addition to 15,000+ in-person festival-goers, Kentuck has shipped art to more than 40 states, and our website reaches over 48,000 users with more than 290,000 page views yearly.

1600+
3rd graders engaged with Artists in the Schools program

"LOCAL LEGACY" US Library of Congress

16K+
Attendees at the 2024 Kentuck
Festival

5TH IN THE NATION
Sunshine Artist
Magazine, 2018

350+
Superstar volunteers make the festival happen

BEST OF BAMA
Alabama Magazine
2018, 2022, 2024

$5+ MILLION

Economic impact made on the surrounding community during the 2-day weekend. That's not money in Kentuck's pocket; that's people visiting businesses like yours!

NEW LOCATION: Snow Hinton Park was chosen with accessibility as a priority. Recent renovations to the park include brand new paved paths, new restrooms, benches, and a parking lot dedicated to accessible parking.

WE CAN'T DO IT WITHOUT CORPORATE PARTNERS LIKE YOU!
PARTNER WITH KENTUCK TODAY!

KENTUCK.ORG

Kentuck Art Center & Festival
503 Main Avenue
Northport, Alabama 35476
(205)-758-1257

@KENTUCKART

WHEN:

OCTOBER 11, 2025; 9AM-5PM

OCTOBER 12, 2025; 9AM-5PM

WHERE: SNOW HINTON PARK, TUSCALOOSA, AL

TICKETS: $15/DAY, $25/WEEKEND

CHILDREN 12 & UNDER FREE | VIP PACKAGES AVAILABLE